To the extent that we, by virtue of our title in the Rented Items or by virtue of this Agreement, are in fact liable to pay any of the foregoing, the Renter agrees that they will pay an amount equivalent to any monies paid or payable from time to time by us in respect of any such liability, by way of an additional instalment or an increased instalment as advised by us, to the extent permissible by law.
- 15.6 Subject to clauses 12.5 - 12.7, the Renter's obligations to pay the instalments of rent and any other amounts due under this Agreement are unconditional for the Term and operate even if the Rented Items break down, are damaged or destroyed. - 16.4 Where a Default Event has occurred and we have commenced enforcement proceedings, or the Renter dies or is insolvent, we will not provide a statement of account, unless the trustee in bankruptcy or the personal representative of the Renter requests such statement.

17. NOTICES

- 17.1 Any notice or demand to be given by us to the Renter may be delivered to the Renter personally, or by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the Premises or by sending it via email (if the Renters have consented to receiving notices via email).

20. MISCELLANEOUS

- 20.1 If we decide not to exercise a right, remedy or power, this does not mean we cannot exercise it later. In addition, the termination of this agreement does not affect any rights we have to recover monies including damages from the Renter. The single or partial exercise or waiver by us of any right relating to this Agreement will not prevent any other exercise of that right or exercise of any other rights.

- 20.2 Where there are two or more Renters, each Renter is bound by this agreement jointly and severally.
- 20.3 Each provision of this Agreement is independent of each other provision. Any provision which would otherwise be prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction is, to the extent of the prohibition or unenforceability, deemed removed without invalidating, as far as is possible, the remaining provisions.
- 20.4 This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State or Territory of Australia in which you ordinarily reside when you enter into this Agreement and the parties submit to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that jurisdiction.

21. EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

Subsection 175 (1) of the Code Regulation 105 of the Regulations

Things you should know about your consumer lease.

This statement tells you about some of the rights and obligations of yourself and your lessor. It does not state the terms and conditions of your lease.

THE LEASE

1. HOW CAN I GET DETAILS OF MY LEASE?

- 1.1 Your lessor must give you a copy of your consumer lease with this statement. Both documents must be given to you within 14 days after the lessor enters into the consumer lease, unless you already have a copy of the consumer lease.
- 1.2 If you want another copy of your lease, write to your lessor and ask for one. Your lessor may charge you a fee.
- 1.3 Your lessor has to give you a copy:
  - (a) Within 14 days of your written request if the contract came into existence 1 year or less before your request; or
  - (b) Otherwise within 30 days.

2. WHAT SHOULD MY LEASE TELL ME?

- 2.1 You should read your lease carefully. Your lease should tell you about your obligations, and include information on matters such as:
  - (a) Details of the goods which have been hired; and

- (b) Any amount you have to pay before the goods are delivered; and
  - (c) Stamp duty and other government charges you have to pay; and
  - (d) Charges you have to pay which are not included in the rental payments; and
  - (e) The amount of each rental payment; and
  - (f) The date on which the first rental payment is due and either the dates of the other rental payments or the interval between them; and
  - (g) The number of rental payments; and
  - (h) The total amount of rent; and
  - (i) When you can end your lease; and
  - (j) What your obligations are (if any) when your lease ends.
- 2.2 This information only has to be included in your lease if it is possible to give it at the relevant times.
- 2.3 If your lease does not tell you all these details, contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme, or get legal advice, for example from a community legal centre or Legal Aid, as you may have rights against your lessor.

3. CAN I END MY LEASE EARLY?

- 3.1 Yes. Simply return the goods to your lessor. The goods may be returned in ordinary business hours or at any other time you and the lessor agree on or the court decides.

4. WHAT WILL I HAVE TO PAY IF I END MY LEASE EARLY?

- 4.1 The amount the lease says you have to pay. If you have made rental payments in advance then it is possible that your lessor might owe you money if you return the goods early.

5. CAN MY LEASE BE CHANGED BY MY LESSOR?

- 5.1 Yes, but only if your lease says so.

6. IS THERE ANYTHING I CAN DO IF I THINK THAT MY LEASE IS UNJUST?

- 6.1 Yes. You should talk to your lessor. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.
- 6.2 If that is not successful, you may contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme.

THE GOODS

7. IF MY LESSOR WRITES ASKING ME WHERE THE GOODS ARE, DO I HAVE TO SAY WHERE THEY ARE?

8. WHEN CAN MY LESSOR OR ITS AGENT COME INTO A RESIDENCE TO TAKE POSSESSION OF THE GOODS?

- 8.1 Your lessor can only do so if it has the court's approval or the written consent of the occupier which is given after the occupier is informed in writing of the relevant section in the National Credit Code.

GENERAL

9. WHAT DO I DO IF I CANNOT MAKE A RENTAL PAYMENT?

- 9.1 Get in touch with your lessor immediately. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement. You can ask your lessor to change your lease in a number of ways:

- (b) To extend the term of your lease and delay rental payments for a set time; or
- (c) To delay rental payments for a set time.

10. WHAT IF MY LESSOR AND I CANNOT AGREE ON A SUITABLE ARRANGEMENT?

- 10.1 If the lessor refuses your request to change the rental payments, you can ask your lessor to review this decision if you think it is wrong. If the lessor still refuses your request, you can complain to the external dispute resolution scheme that your lessor belongs to. Further details about this scheme are set out below in question 12.

11. CAN MY LESSOR TAKE ACTION AGAINST ME?

11.1 Yes, if you are in default under your lease. But the law says that you cannot be unduly harassed or threatened for rental payments. If you think you are being unduly harassed or threatened, contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme or ASIC, or get legal advice.

12.1 Yes. The law will give you other rights and obligations. You should also READ YOUR LEASE carefully.

Credit Guide

About this Credit Guide

As a licenced credit provider, we are required to give you a Credit Guide as soon as practicable after it becomes apparent to us that a lease is likely to be entered into.

The guide includes information about us, our responsible lending obligations and our dispute resolution process.

Suitability Assessment

Under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act, we must not enter into a lease with you, or increase the credit limit of a lease with you, if the contract is unsuitable for you.

The contract will be unsuitable for you if, at the time the contract is entered into or the credit limit is increased, it is likely that:

- You will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the contract, or could only comply with substantial hardship; or
- The contract will not meet your requirements or objectives.

We must make an assessment whether the contract will be unsuitable for you before entering into a lease with you or increasing the limit of an existing lease.

You can request a copy of our assessment. We must give you a copy (at no charge to you):

- Before entering the lease or before the credit limit is increased, if you make the request before then;
- Within 7 business days, if your request is made within 2 years of entering into the contract or the credit limit increase; and
- Otherwise, within 21 business days.

We do not need to give you a copy of the assessment if:

- Your request is made more than 7 years after entering into the contract or the credit limit increase; or
- The lease is not entered into or the credit limit is not increased.
